Ryder Room for 2025 Anzac Day Collingwood vs Essendon

Located in the Shane Warne Stand overlooking the ground on Level 2 of the MCG, the Ryder Room is a premium function space, perfect for high end client entertainment.

Jack Ryder, for whom the room is named after, was known as the "King of Collingwood" for his long association with the local cricket team. An all-rounder, he claimed 612 wickets and scored 12,677 runs in 338 district matches.

Guests on Anzac Day will enjoy a quality dining experience and hear from special guests & entertainers before taking your reserved seat directly above the room in section 2A.

Ryder Room Anzac Day inclusions:

- Two course dining experience in the Harrison Room on Level 2 of the Ponsford Stand
- Reserved and sequential seats above the room in Q29, Q30 and Q31. These seats are one flight of stairs above the room, approx 2 min walk
- Premium wines, beer, spirits and soft drinks served to your table. The bar remains open during the game for beverage service, drinks must be decanted into plastic to take back to your seats.
- Live entertainment and guest speakers
- Half time afternoon tea/supper

Please note: Bookings of 10 (and multiples thereof) will be allocated with a private table. Numbers less than 10 will be place on a shared table.

Dress code:

Business casual - This excludes t-shirts, shorts, ripped garments, and denim. Hats, beanies, and football jumpers must be removed before entering the function room. Scarves are welcome.
